WHITE WITCH

MASON A.

Dear reader,

Thank you for picking up my First ever comic nothing but love went into this book and although im still learning and figuring things out.
I hope you enjoy. Be good!

-Mason

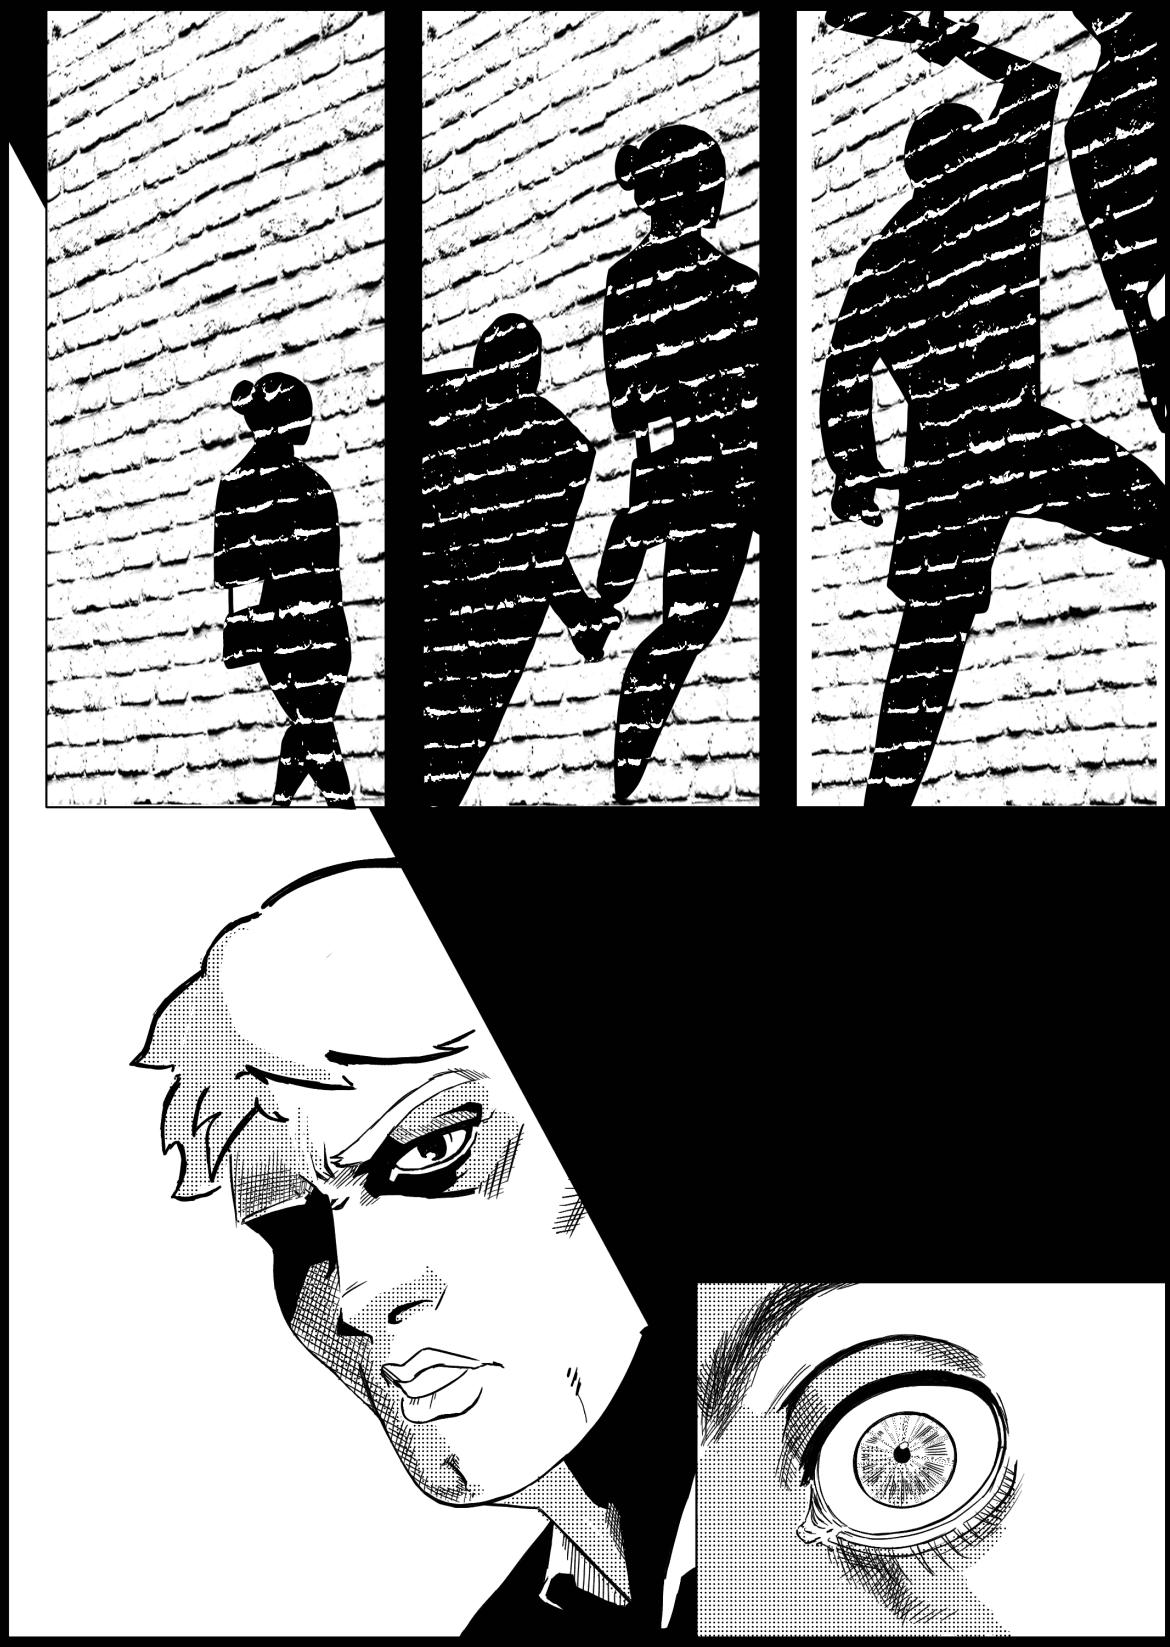

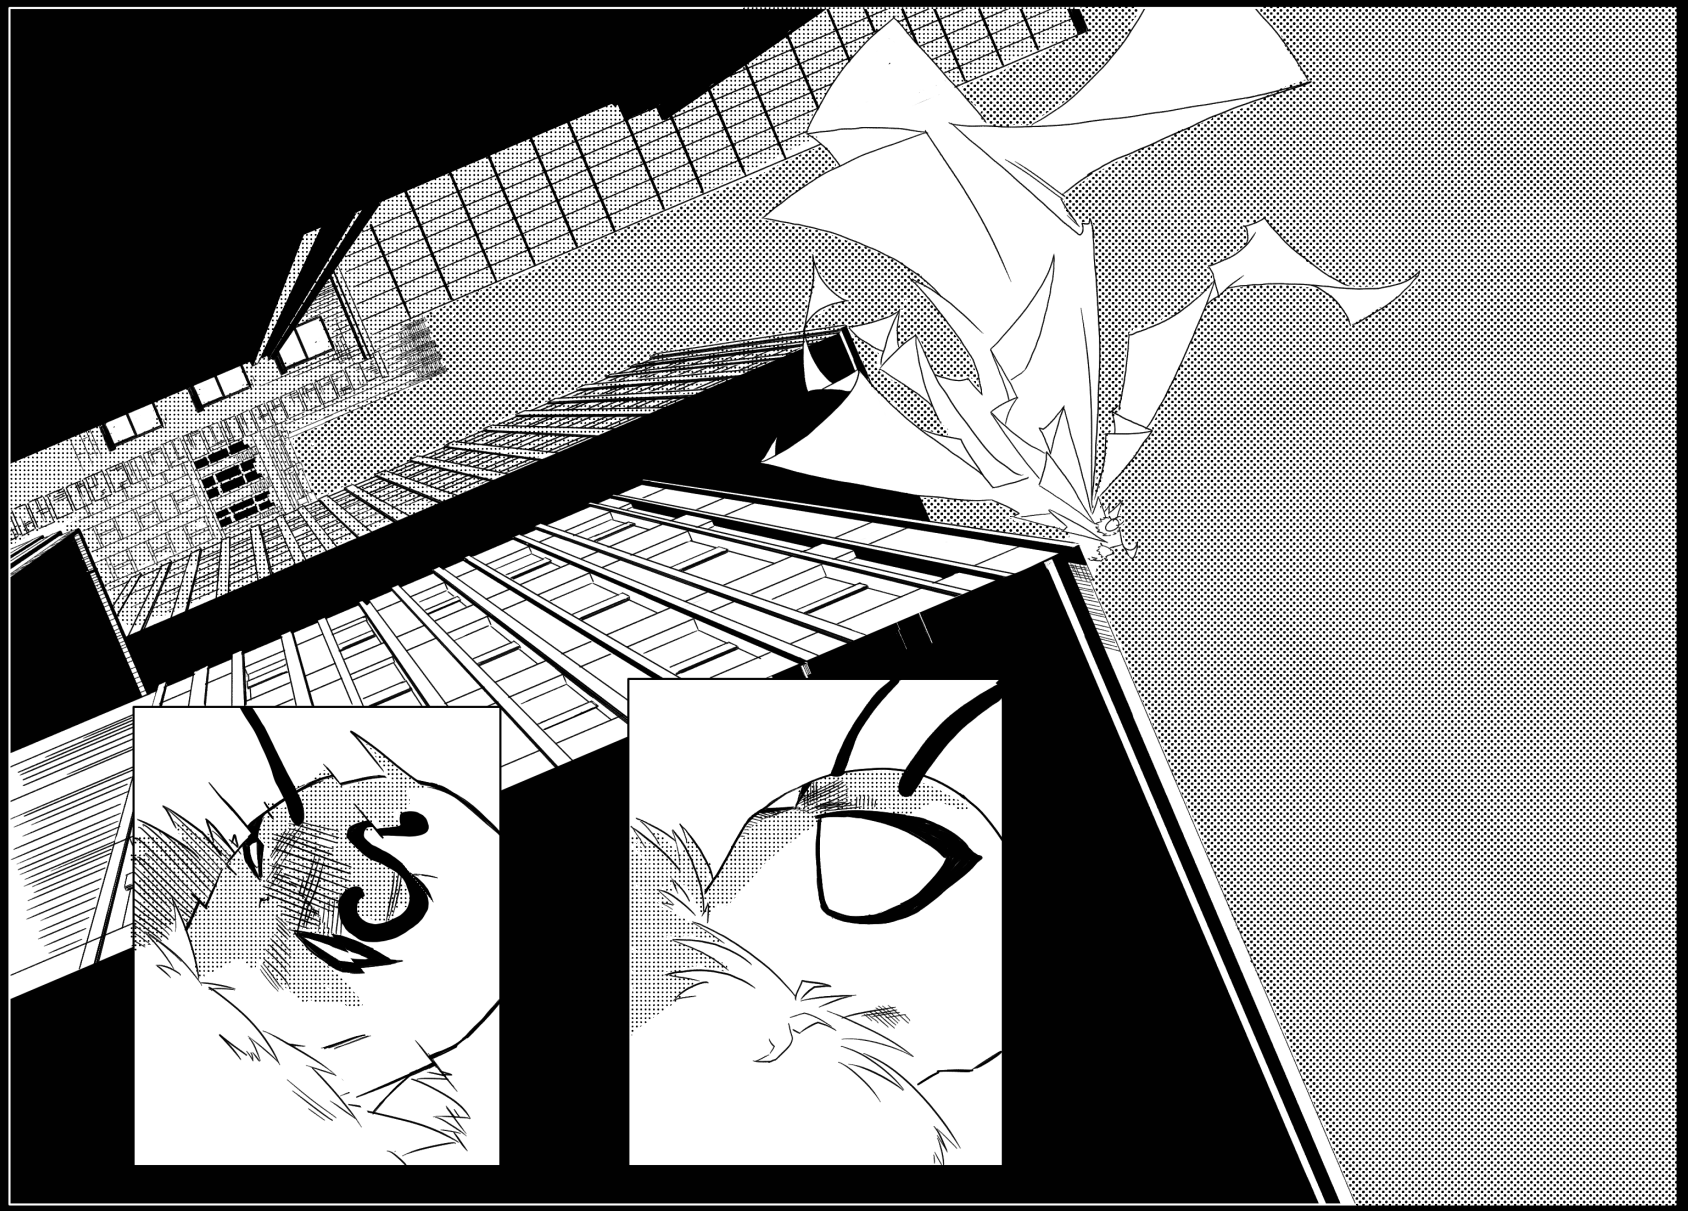

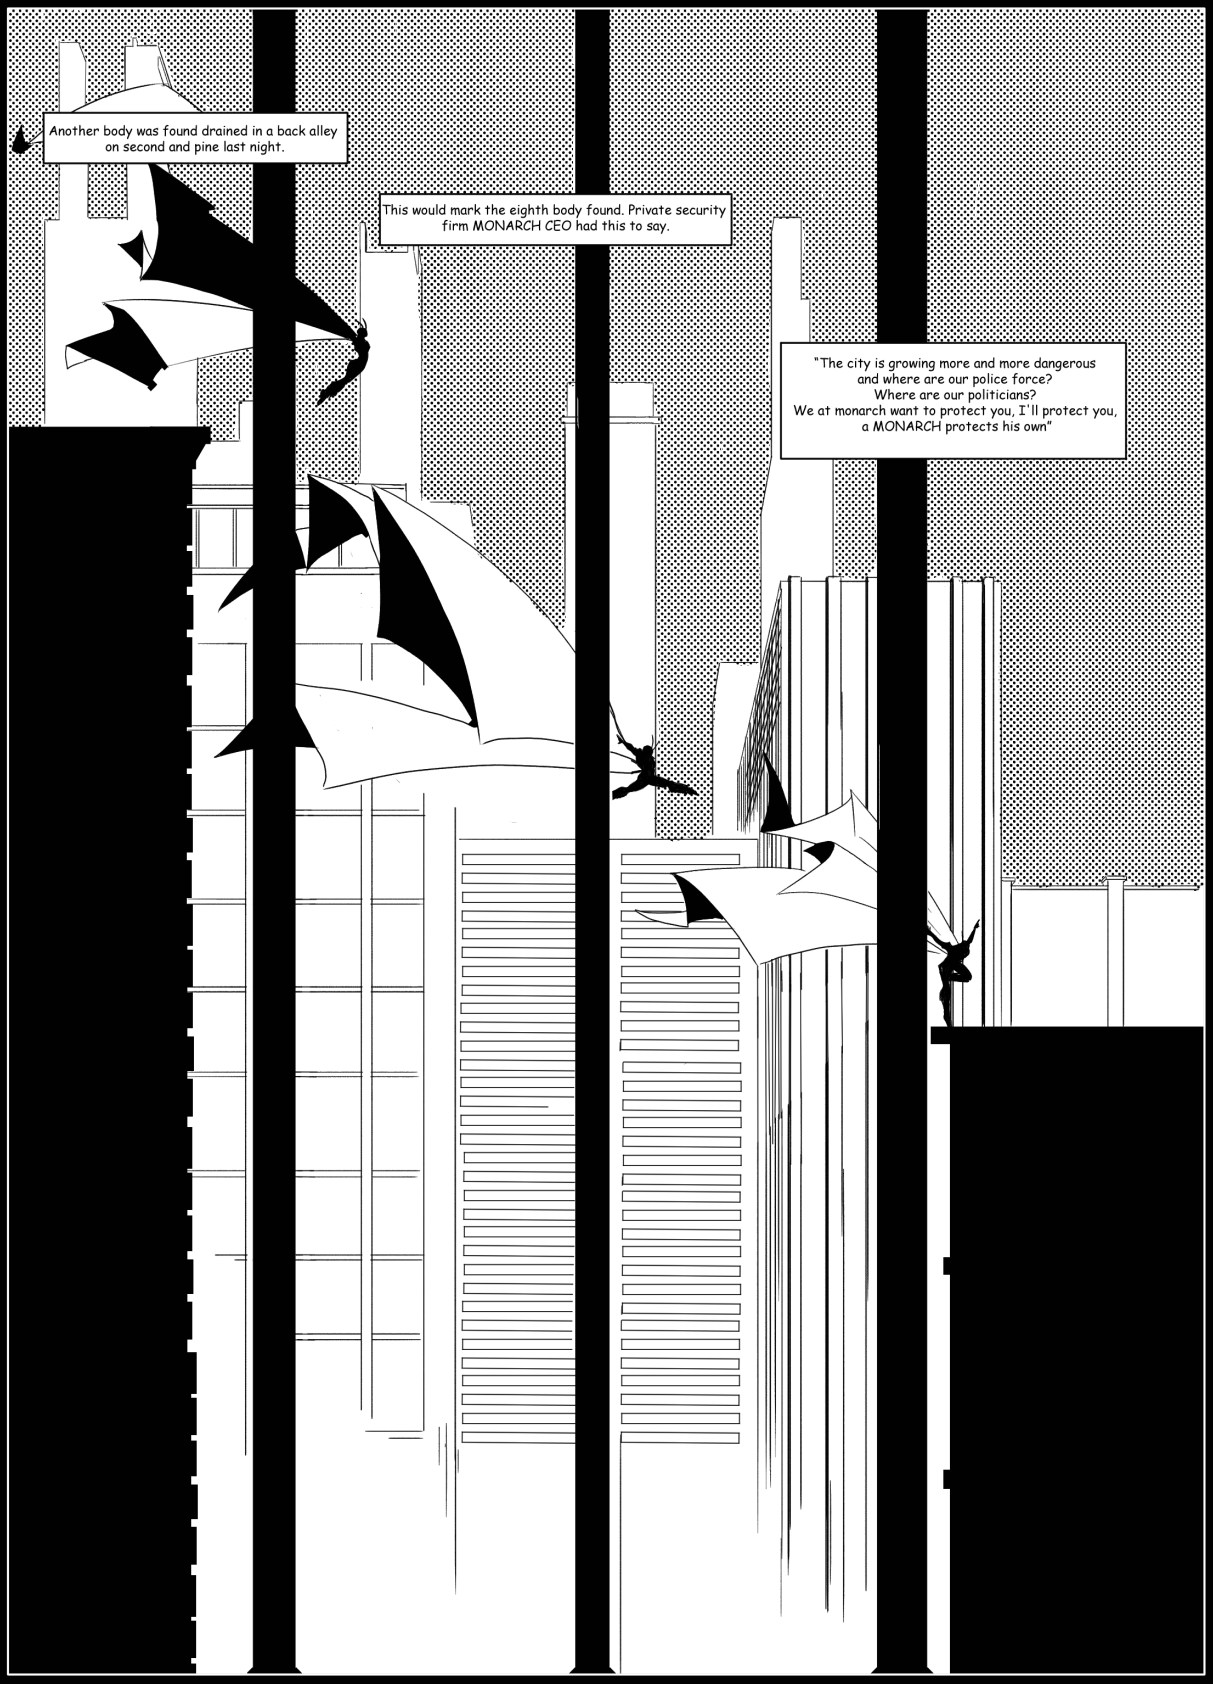

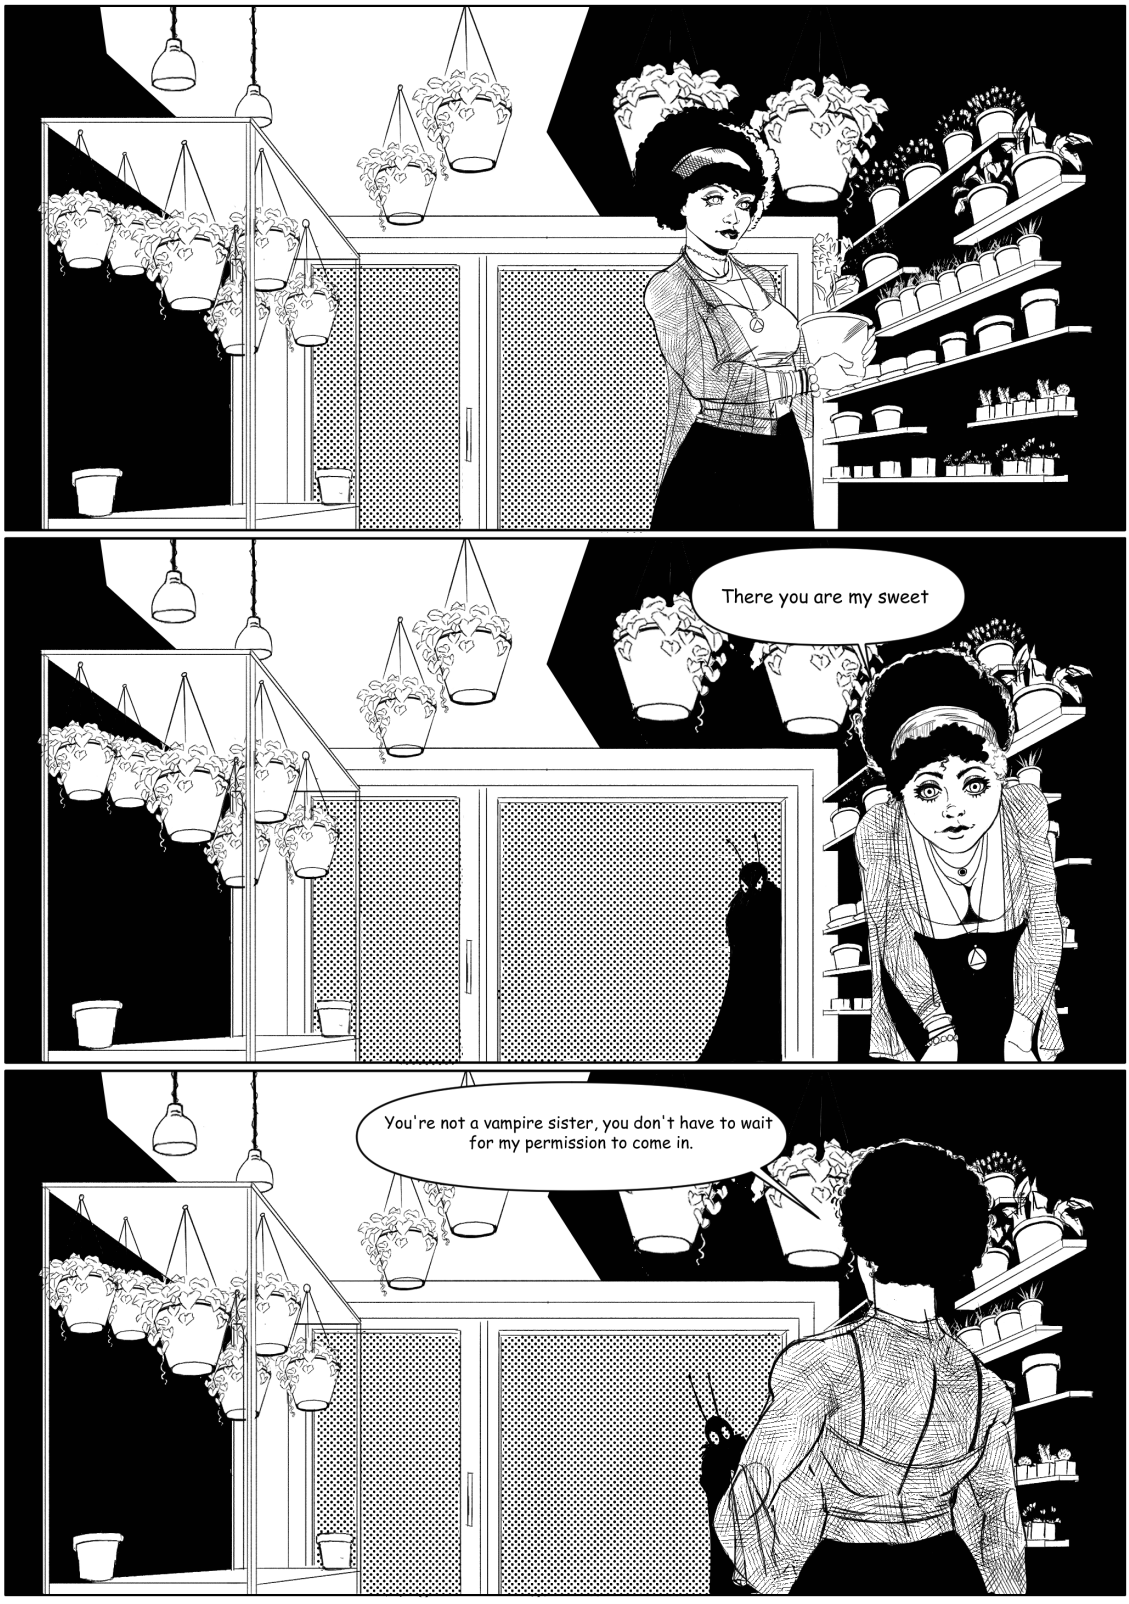

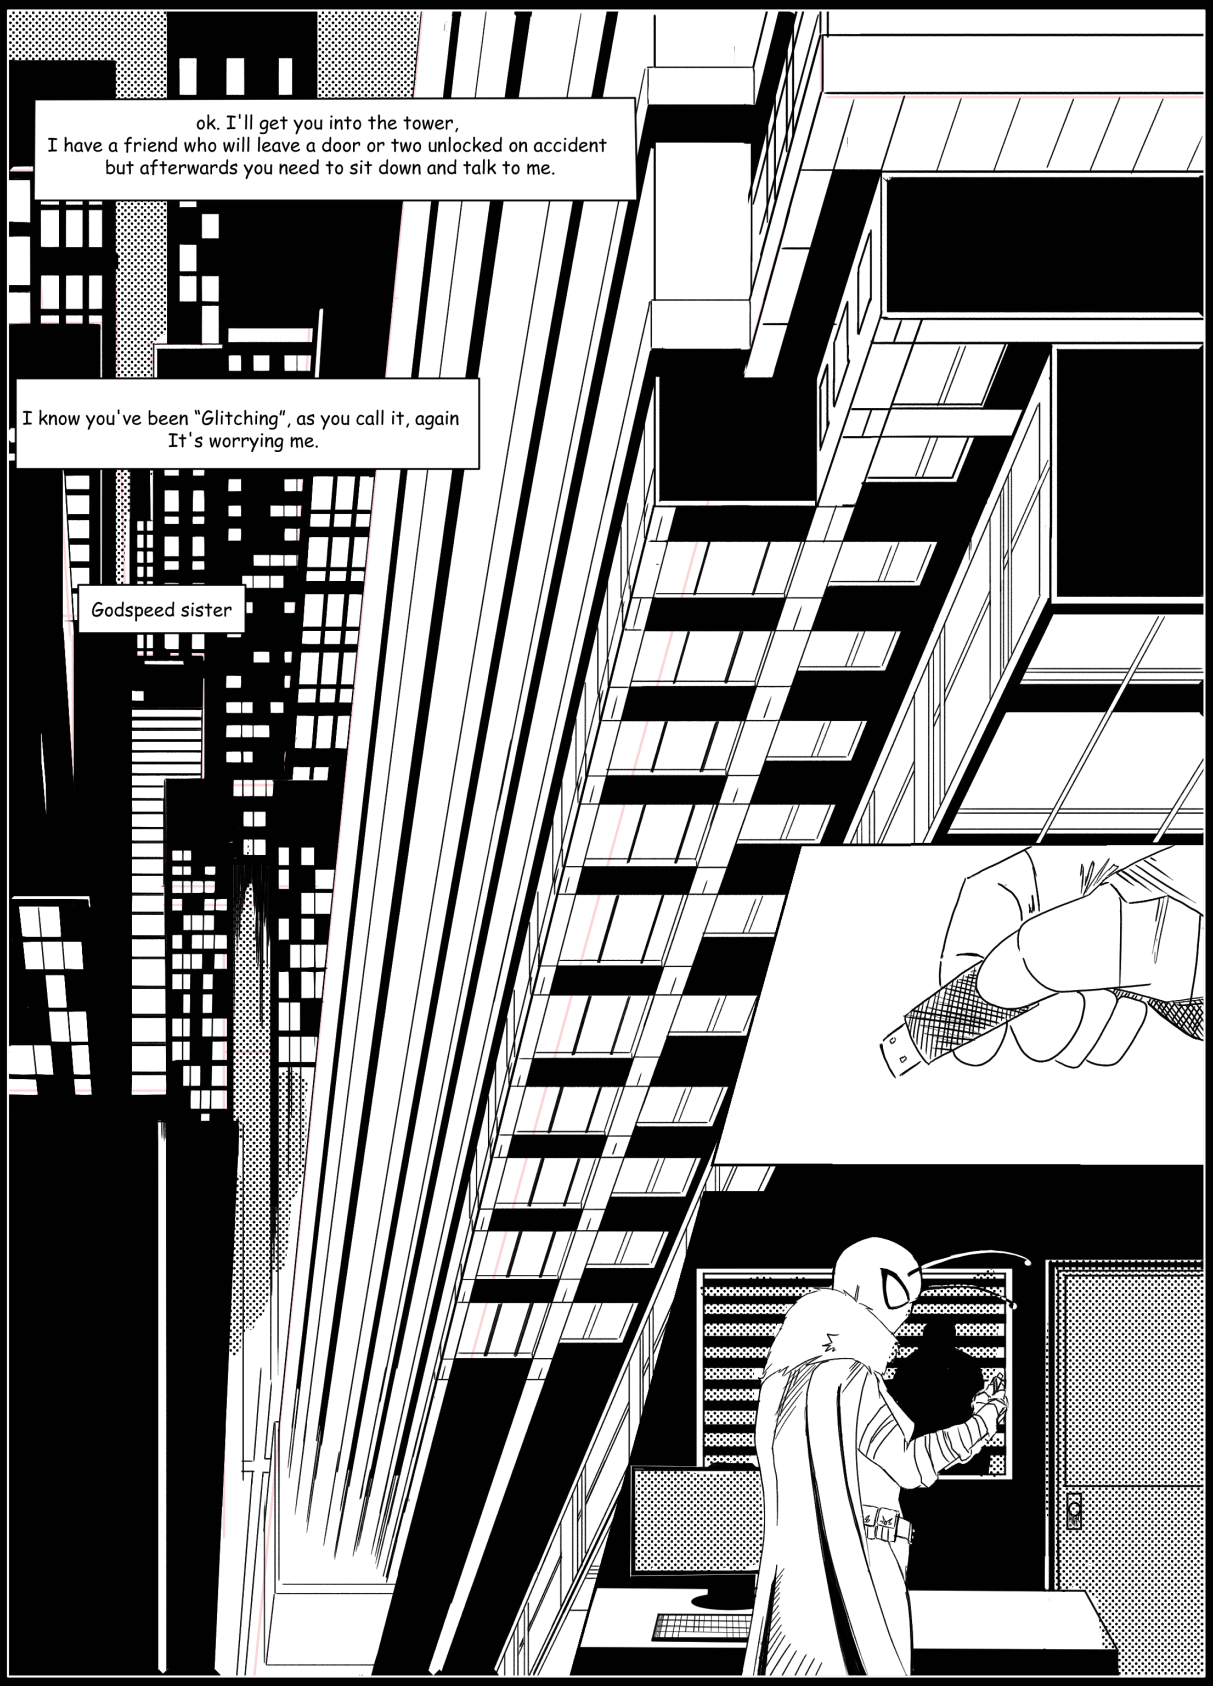

Another body was found drained in a back alley on second and pine last night.
This would mark the eighth body found. Private security firm MONARCH CEO had this to say.
"The city is growing more and more dangerous and where are our police force?
Where are our politicians?
We at monarch want to protect you, I'll protect you, a MONARCH protects his own"

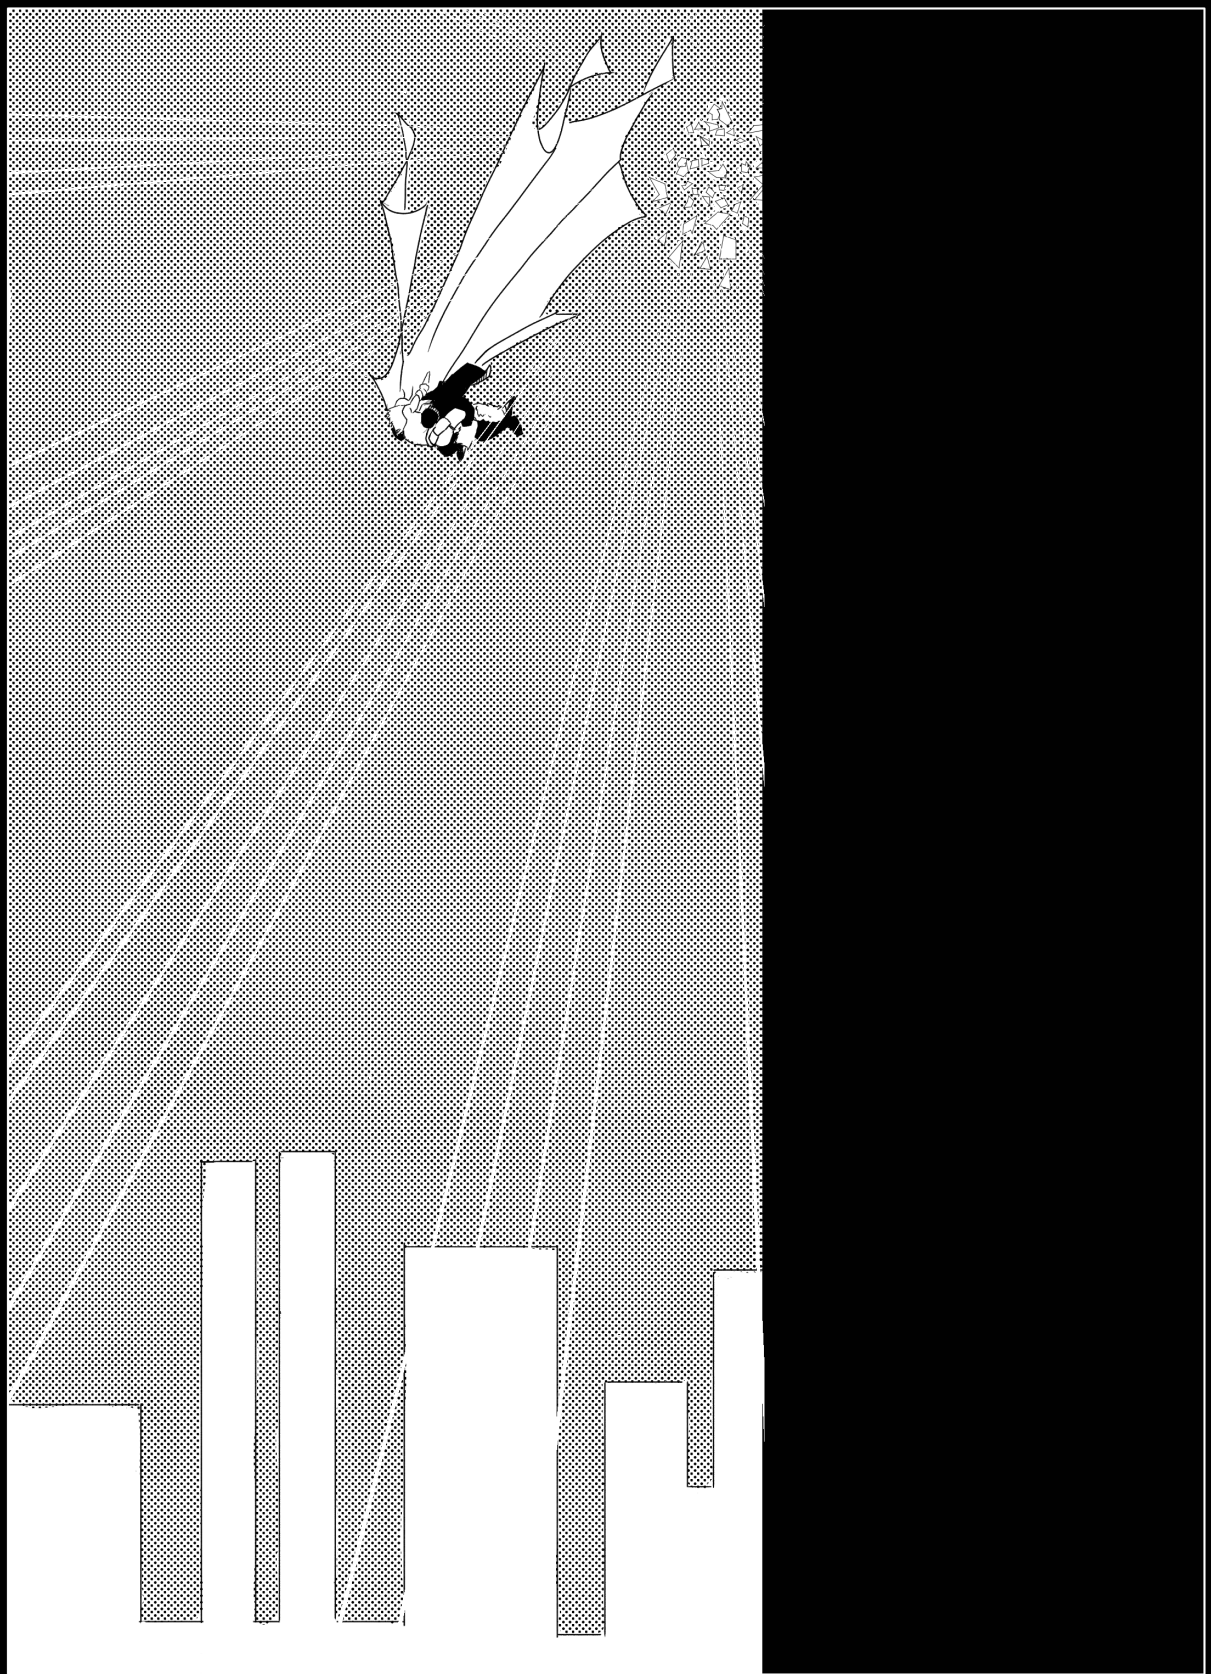

There you are my sweet
You're not a vampire sister, you don't have to wait for my permission to come in.

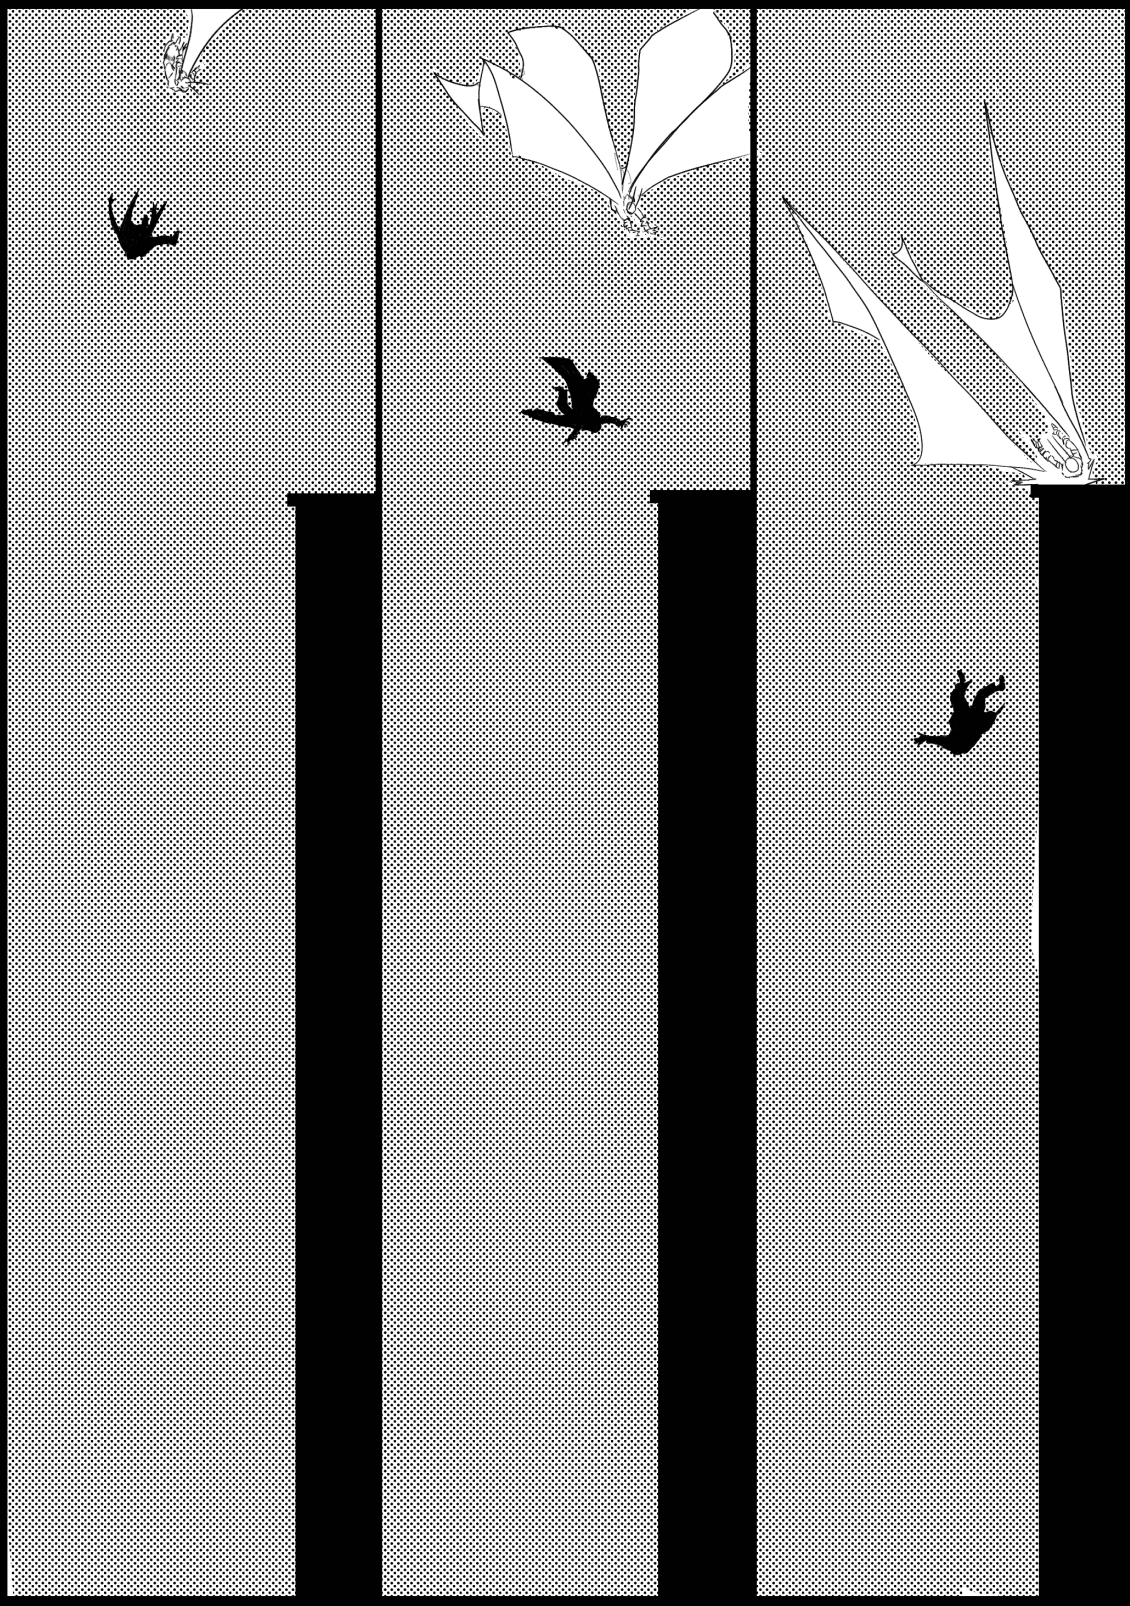

Hello, my Phantom
ASL: HELLO
So what do you want to talk about tonight sister?
I have a feeling you already have an answer
that won't help
your mental health?

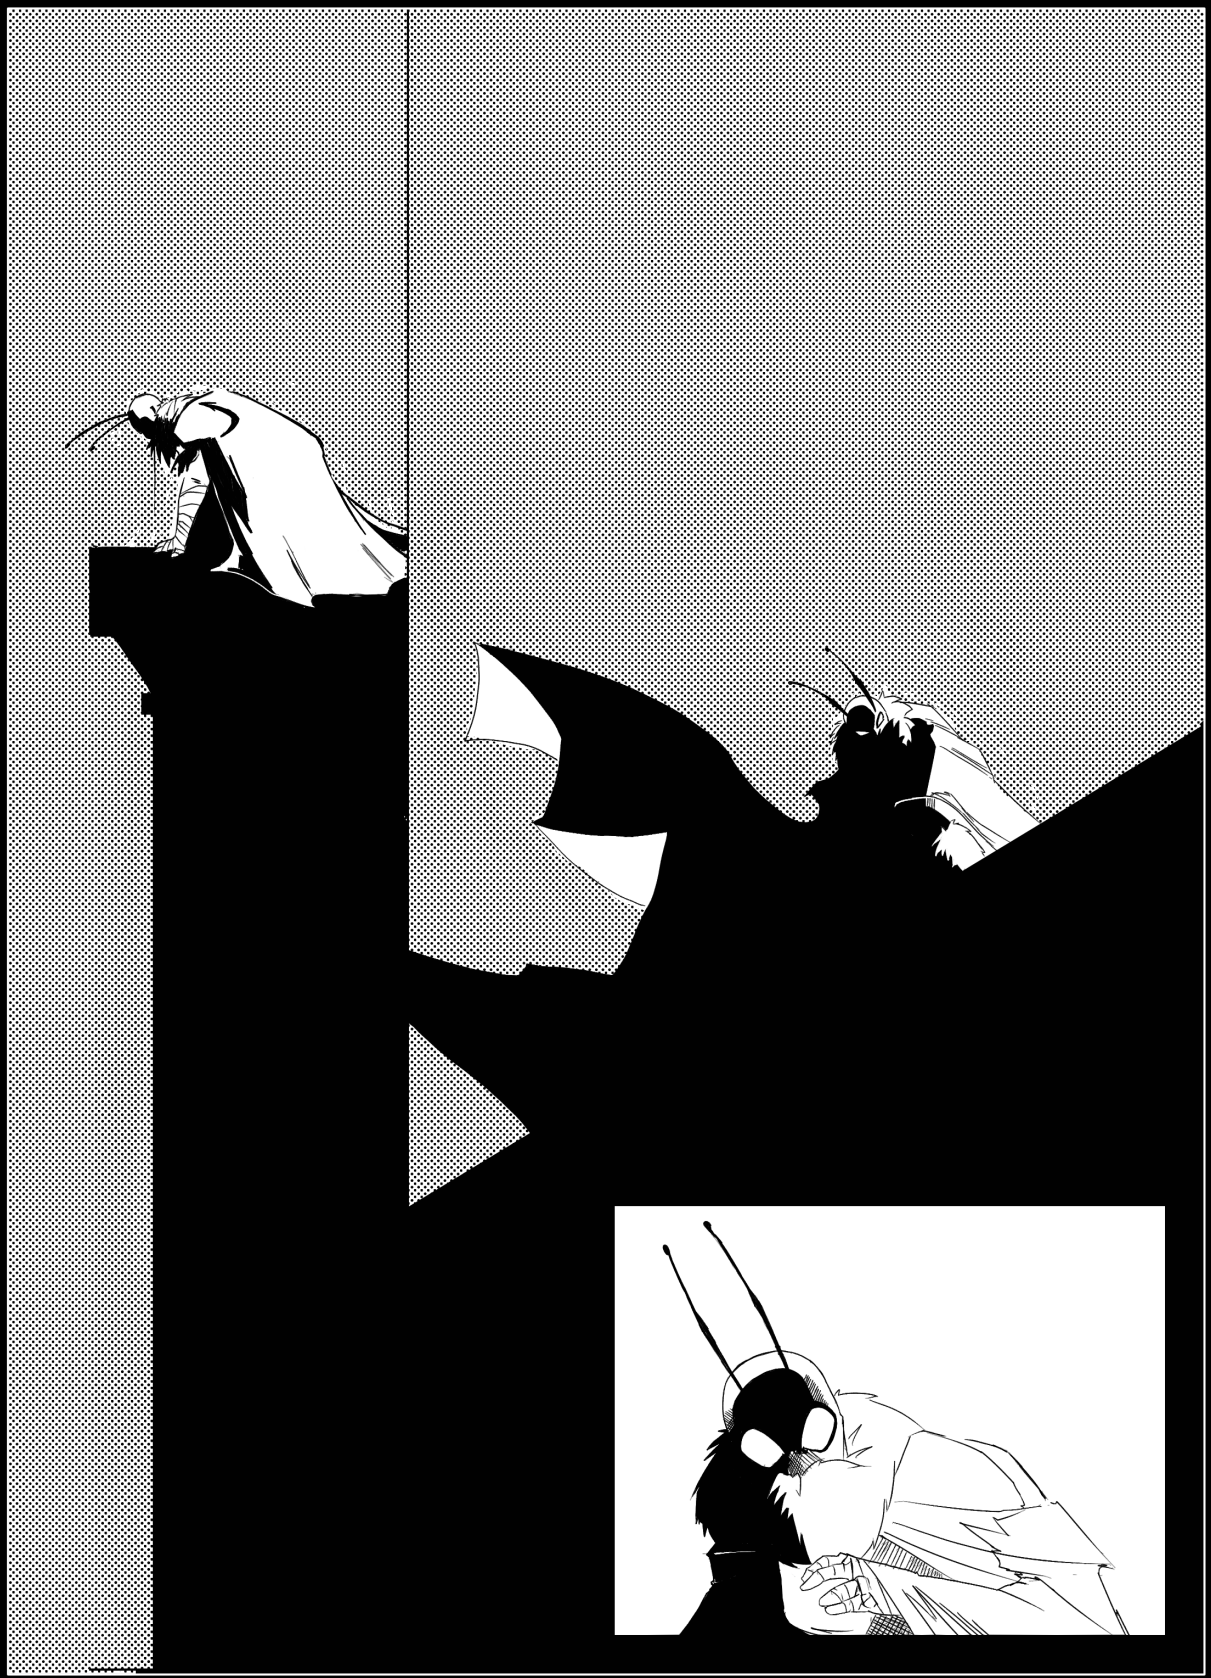

Goodness you're quick.
Number eight.
Sister, her name was Mary Monrowe.
She worked as a lawyer for MONARCH.
This marks the fifth person to have worked for MONARCH
in the past to end up dead.
Each body has been depleted of all blood after being hit by blunt force.
Why are there more Victims related to MONARCH?
Oh and take your mask off we are daughters of Ibu you can't hide from me and you now want to break into MONARCH tower
Do you really think MONARCH has something to do with it?

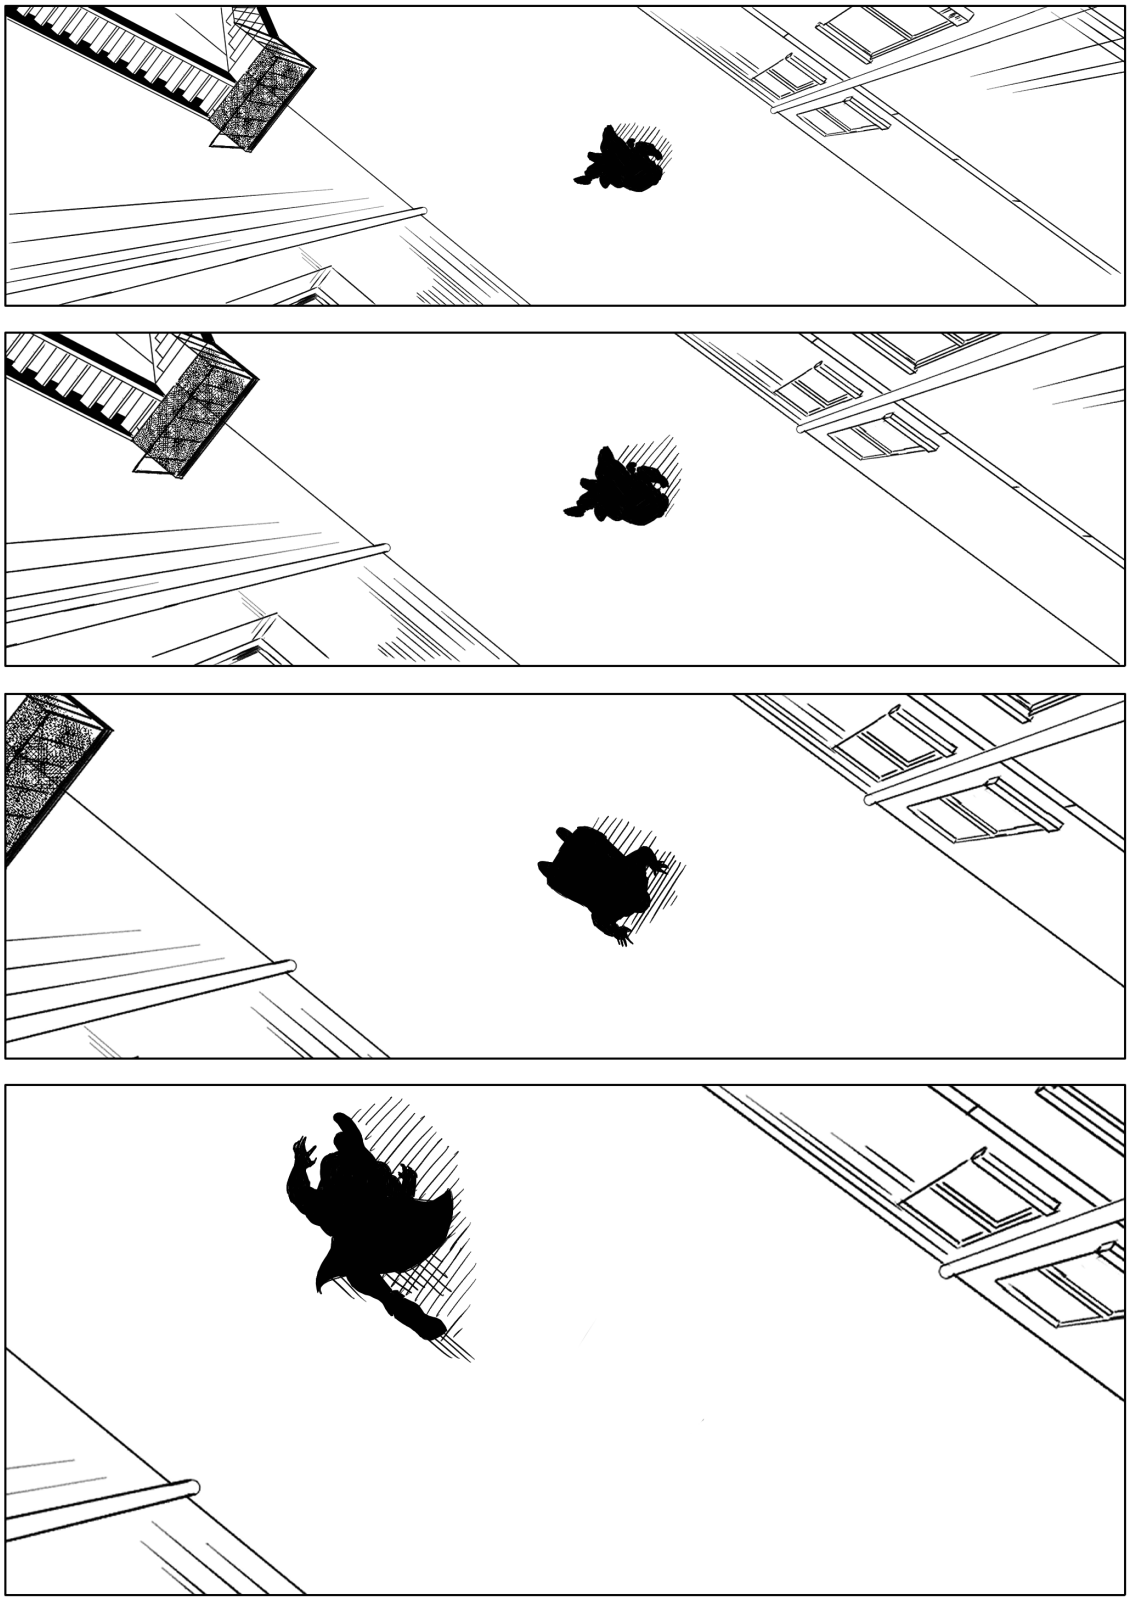

ok. I'll get you into the tower,
I have a friend who will leave a door or two unlocked on accident but afterwards you need to sit down and talk to me.
I know you've been "Glitching", as you call it, again
It's worrying me.
Godspeed sister

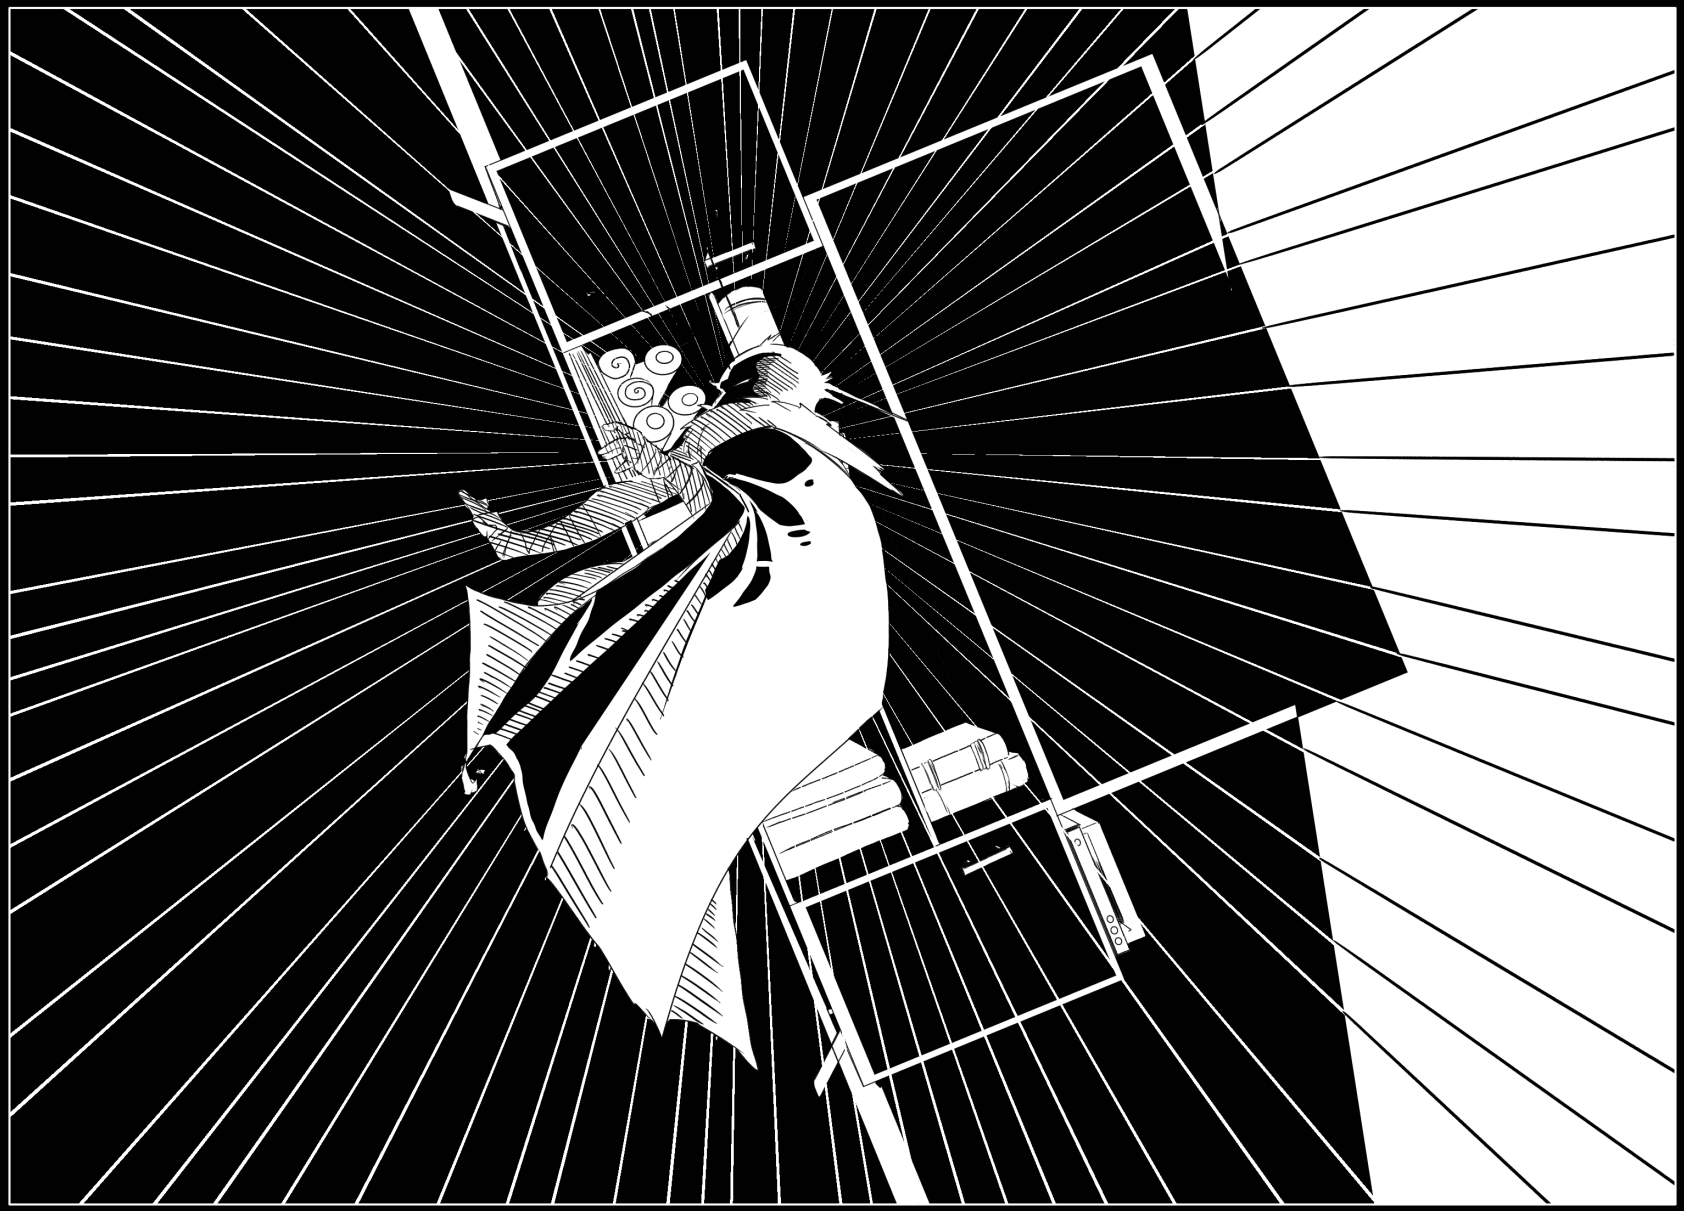

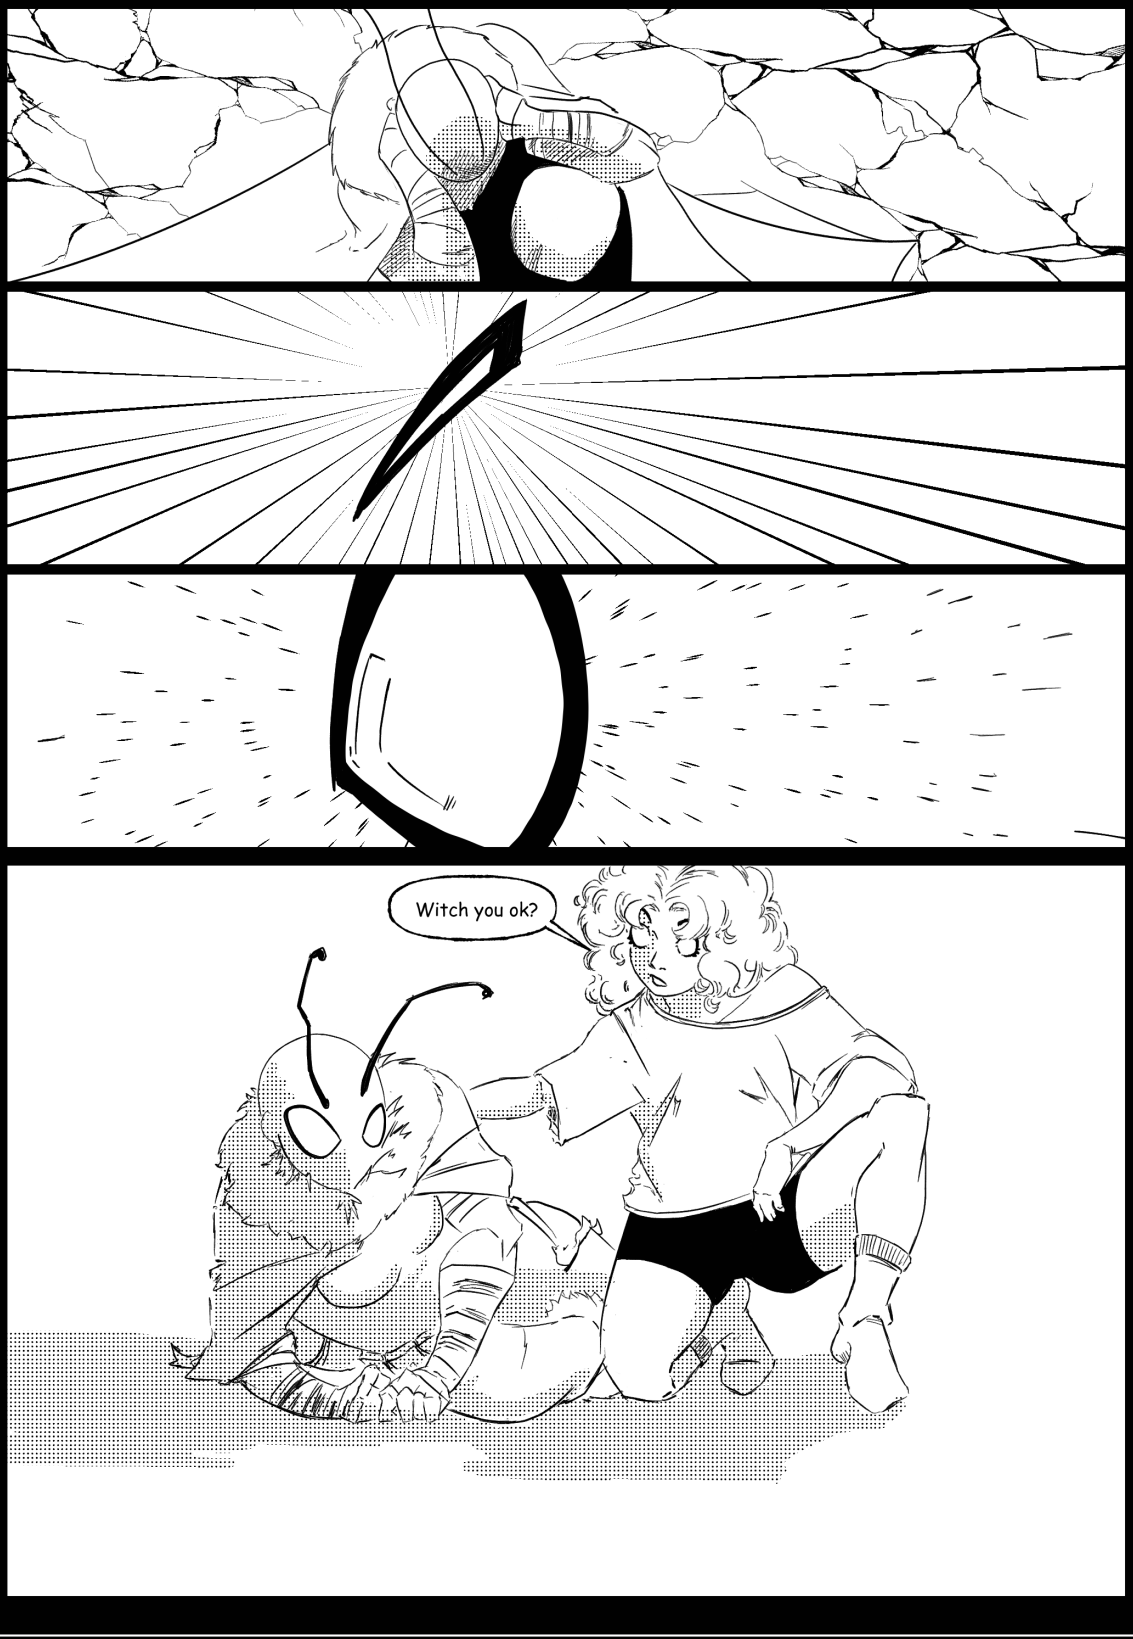

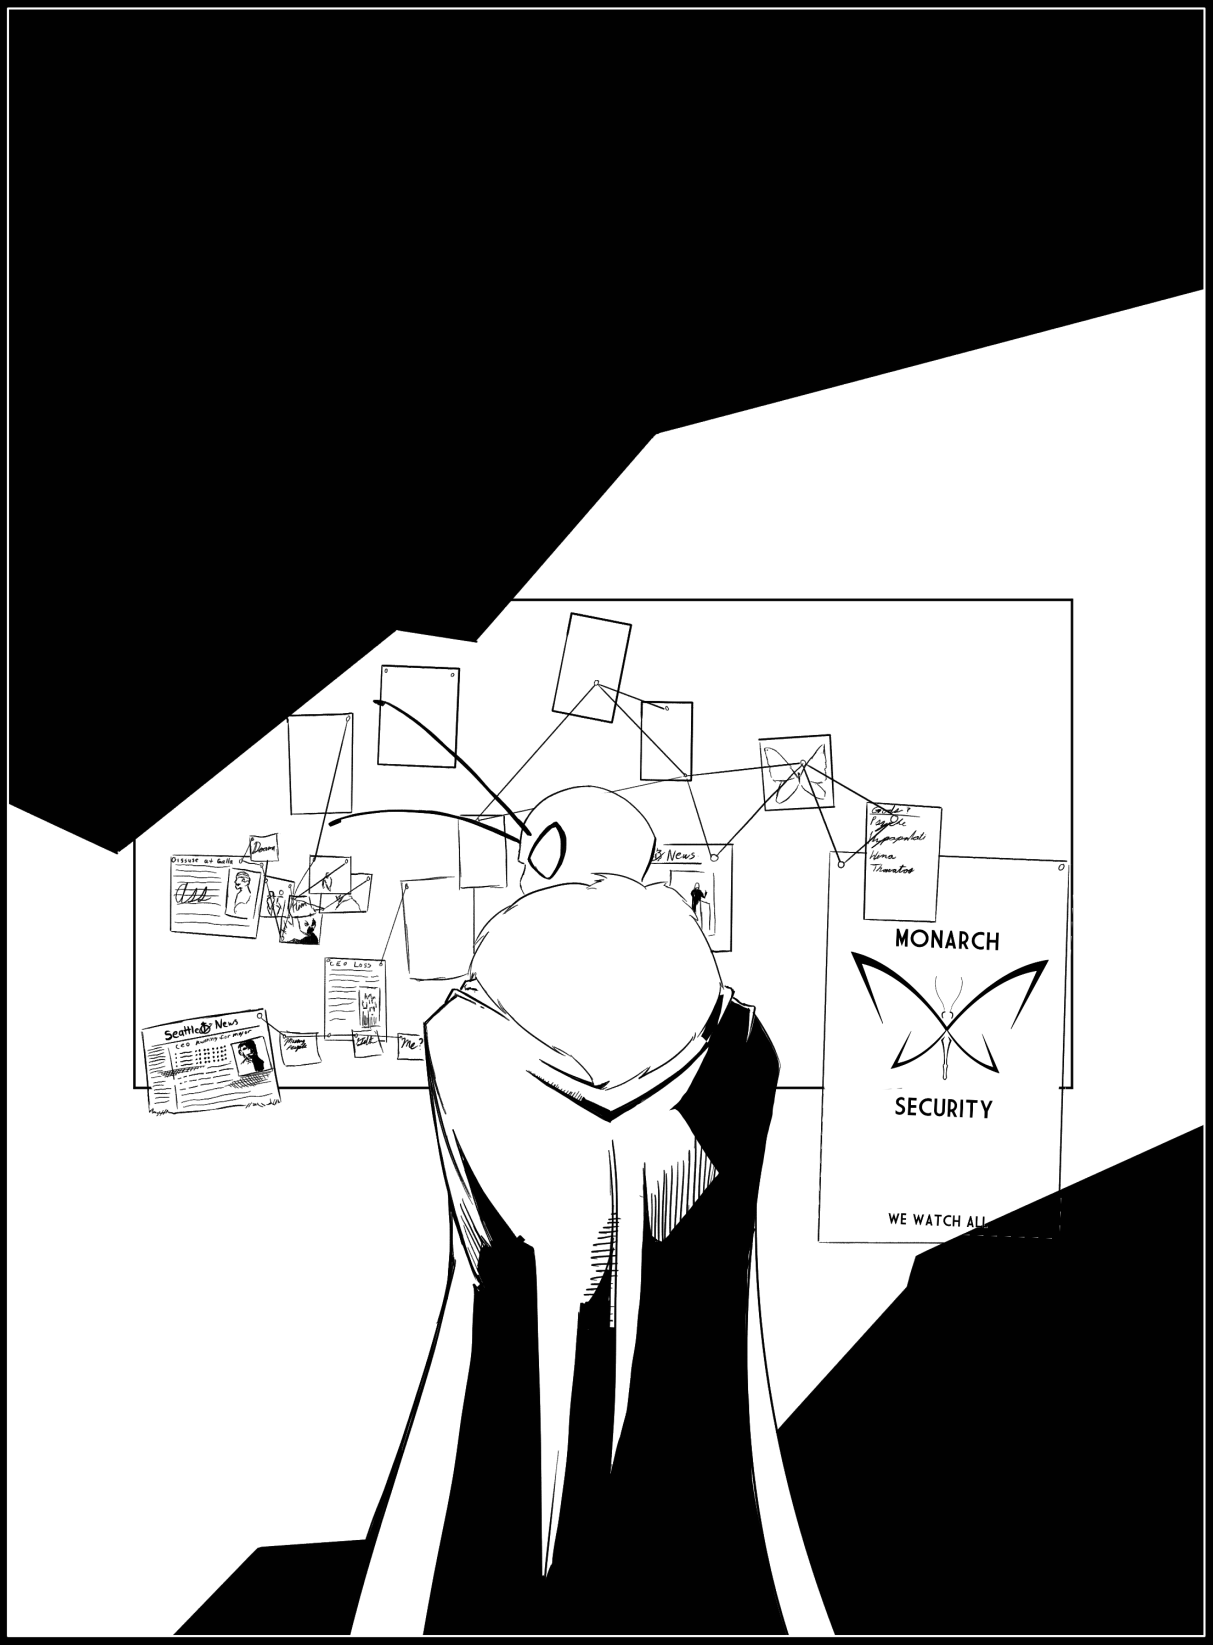

Witch you ok?

Do you wanna talk about it?
Or you can get up and walk away
thats fine too i guess
ASL: Fell/Fall
YOU FELL? What do you mean?!
Where were you?
How high?
